The medical device market is expected to reach $440 billion worldwide by 2018, a 43.7% increase from today’s value.

Sample student project that uses custom visuals to give statistical information on medical devices such as implants.
Only 37.7% of people with a visual disability are employed.

Sample student project that uses custom visuals to give statistical information on medical devices such as implants.
50% of the U.S. population aged 75 and over suffer from disabling hearing loss.

Sample student project that uses custom visuals to give statistical information on medical devices such as implants.