Greetings from your librarian!
Dear Linguistics Faculty:
I hope this newsletter finds you well. In this edition, you’ll find:

- April 5 event: Incorporating information literacy through faculty grants: A roundtable discussion
- USC Libraries Wonderland Award: Deadline April 1
- Collection suggestion deadlines approaching
- highlighted resource: Indo-European Etymological Dictionaries Online
- featured new books

-Elizabeth Galoozis
Librarian for Linguistics
(213) 821-0097
galoozis@usc.edu
VKC Library, B38b

Incorporating information literacy through faculty grants: A roundtable discussion

Tuesday, April 5, 2016, 12:00-1:00

Music Library, DML G28 (Herklotz Room)

Join recipients of the USC Libraries Undergraduate Information Literacy Course Enhancement Grants for a roundtable discussion on the process and outcomes. Adriana Striefer, Mark Marino, and Jennifer Bankard will take us through what motivated them to apply for an information literacy grant, the modifications they made to their assignments, student outcomes, and their collaborations with librarians. The project is made possible by a Dean’s challenge grant and the discussion will be facilitated by librarians Carolyn Caffrey Gardner and Elizabeth Galoozis.

USC Libraries Wonderland Award: Deadline April 1, 2016

Highlighted resource: Indo-European Etymological Dictionaries Online (via BrillOnline)

Indo-European Etymological Dictionaries Online (IEDO) reconstructs the lexicon for the most important languages and language branches of Indo-European. It is a rich and voluminous online reference source for historical and general linguists. Dictionaries can be cross-searched, with an advance search for each individual dictionary enabling the user to perform more complex research queries. Each entry is accompanied by grammatical info, meaning(s), etymological commentary, reconstructions, cognates and often extensive bibliographical information.

The Wonderland Award is an annual multidisciplinary competition - open to all USC students - that encourages new scholarship and creative work related to Lewis Carroll (1832–1898) and supported by the Cassady Lewis Carroll collection at USC Libraries Special Collections. Deadline for entries is Friday, April 1, 2016; winners will be announced at an award reception in Doheny Library on Thursday, April 21, 2016. Learn more and apply.

Want to suggest an item for the libraries’ collections?

The deadline for requesting books from international publishers is March 31; the deadline for American publishers is April 30. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Featured New Books
Contemporary Linguistic Parameters
(Editors: Jaume Mateu (Editor); Michael Putnam (Editor))
Call Number: P265.5 .C66 2015 (Leaven)
Publication Date: 2015

Fundamentals of Formulaic Language: An Introduction by David Wood
Call Number: P126 .W66 2015 (Doheny)
Publication Date: 2015

Language and Superdiversity by Jan Blommaert (Editor); Ben Rampton (Editor); Karel Amaut (Editor); Massimiliano Spotti (Editor)
Call Number: P115.45 .L36 2016 (Doheny)
Publication Date: 2016

Metaphor and Metonymy Through Time and Cultures: Perspectives on the Sociohistorical Linguistics of Figurative Language by Javier E. Díaz-Vera (Editor)
Call Number: online (ebook)
ISBN: 9783110335463
Publication Date: 2015

Semantics and Beyond: Philosophical and Linguistic Inquiries by Piotr Stalnaskczyk (Editor)
Call Number: online (ebook)
ISBN: 9783110362480
Publication Date: 2014