Call for Applications: Undergraduate Information Literacy Grants

This grant opportunity is designed to jumpstart curricular implementation of the USC Information Literacy Outcomes for Undergraduates, and the Association of College & Research Libraries (ACRL) Information Literacy Framework for Higher Education.

Grant recipients will be awarded $200 to devote time to attend the information

Placing materials on course reserve literacy workshop on Friday, November 4th, 2016. The deadline to apply is Friday, September 30, 2016, at noon.

Learn more and apply at http://libguides.usc.edu/ILgrants

Highlighted resource: Oxford Bibliographies

“Developed cooperatively with scholars and librarians worldwide, Oxford Bibliographies offers exclusive, authoritative research guides. Combining the best features of an annotated bibliography and a high-level encyclopedia, this cutting-edge resource guides researchers to the best available scholarship across a wide variety of subjects.”

This resource is invaluable for developing course reading lists and literature reviews.

It’s that time of year again...to put physical and electronic library items on reserve for your class. If you haven’t done so yet, you can find out how, here: http://libguides.usc.edu/reserves/ares-overview

Instructional services for the fall

As always, please contact me if you’d like for me to consult on:

- incorporating research skills and concepts into assignments
- coming into part or all of a class session for instruction in research skills and concepts
- incorporating library resources into your syllabus
