Updated step-by-step instructions to access the Kanopy streaming service

 USC Libraries offers access to a variety of free streaming media services including video and music streaming. For information about all of the streaming services you can access visit the Streaming Media Library Guide created by Caroline Muglia, USC Libraries' Co-Associate Dean for Collections & Technical Services; Head of Resource Sharing and Collection Assessment Librarian.

Kanopy Streaming Service is one of our most popular streaming services, offers over 30,000 films in 10 subjects and multiple languages, and includes both popular and academic films.

Use this link to access Kanopy: http://bit.ly/kanopyusc

You will be asked to sign in with your USC NetID and Password.
You are now in Kanopy!

You can either browse videos from the main page or search for a specific title.

Once you have found a video of interest just click play and enjoy!
Enjoy browsing Kanopy and the other streaming services USC Libraries has to offer!
