Did You Know
You have access to MILLIONS of downloadable e-books?

USC Libraries' is now a member of HathiTrust Digital Library

TIME SAVING TIP #8:
EASY STEP-BY-STEP INSTRUCTIONS TO ACCESS HathiTrust DIGITAL LIBRARY

USC Libraries now offers access to the HathiTrust Digital Library which includes millions of fully downloadable, public domain ebooks and other volumes, as well as another 10.5 million searchable volumes still in copyright.

To access the HathiTrust Digital Library first go to the USC Libraries webpage (libraries.usc.edu). Below the search bar select Databases (outlined in RED below).
From there you will be taken our A-Z Database Listing. Search HathiTrust in the Search Bar and click Go.

The first result will be HathiTrust. Click on the link to start the log-in process.

You are now in the HathiTrust Digital Library. If you want to read full-text e-books online you can simply search for them in the search box (outlined in blue). Choose Full View Only to only get full e-book results (HathiTrust also has books and journals still under copyright and in those cases only provides the citations for researchers).

If you want to download an e-book from HathiTrust, you must Log In via your institution. Click the yellow Log In button to start.
From the drop-down menu you can search and select University of Southern California.

Click Continue.

You will be asked to sign in with your USC NetID and Password.
You are now able to download e-books from HathiTrust. Search for an e-book of interest and select the Full-View link.

On the left side of the viewer you have the options to download specific pages or the entire e-book in PDF form.
