AHMANSON LAB EVENTS

Digital Humanities, Critical Digital Citizenship, and the Participatory Library

Erin Glass
Digital Scholarship Librarian, UCSD

Introduction to Digital Mapping and GIS

March 20, 3:00-4:30pm
Ahmanson Lab | LVL 301
Erin Glass will describe several digital humanities projects at UC San Diego including KNTI (a digital commons for institutions of higher education in San Diego), the Race and Oral History Project (a student-driven, digitally-accessible archive about race in San Diego), and the Digital Humanities Research Group. She will offer suggestions for how these projects and their underlying principles might be repurposed at other institutions and hope to end with a discussion about the ongoing challenges and opportunities of cultivating digital humanities practices within a library context.

RSVP for this workshop.

ANTIRACIST PEDAGOGY TEACHING AND LEARNING COMMUNITY DISCUSSION

What to do about racist texts in an anti-racist classroom?

Thursday, March 21, 2-19
12:00pm - 1:00pm
DML G28 - Herklotz Room

Sanders Bernstein, Ph.D. student in English and Assistant Lecturer, English Department will lead a discussion on the question: What to do about racist texts in an anti-racist classroom?

A joint project of the Anti-Racist Pedagogy Collective and the USC Libraries, Anti-Racist Teaching & Learning Community Discussions are aimed at new and seasoned teachers of all kinds who want to make their classrooms not only safe but also just. Light lunch will be provided. Just bring an open mind and a desire to incorporate anti-racist pedagogy into whatever kind of teaching you do.

For more information and to RSVP, go to https://tinyurl.com/antiracistpedagogy. Please RSVP no later than March 18.

VISIONS AND VOICES

RACE RELAY® A Community Dialogue about Race Relations

Saturday, March 2, 2019 at 12 pm
McClintock Building and Theatre (MCC)
1010 West Jefferson Boulevard, Los Angeles, CA 90089

Explore the way race shapes our lives and our world in a RACE RELAY discussion forum. This community dialogue will offer a space for open reflection on identities, attitudes, and feelings about race, one of the defining aspects of our meaningful discussion, and be facilitated by RACE RELAY writer Denise Hamilton with Fred Sugerman and Christo Pellani.
