Check out the June Display Exhibit celebrating Pride on the 2nd floor landing of MHP

OXFORD HANDBOOK OF PHILOSOPHY SERIES

The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy Series can now be accessed through USC Libraries!

Titles of note include: The Oxford Handbook of the Self, The Oxford Handbook of World Philosophy, and The Oxford Handbook of the History of Political Philosophy.
Considered among the first sci-fi stories in the form of a novel, Frankenstein; or, the Modern Prometheus, documents the dire consequences of Victor Frankenstein’s quest to assemble from corpses and reanimate a creature of his own design. On display here are illustrated versions of the novel, several representations of the many new creations, re-creations, and miscreations of Frankenstein’s creature that followed the original, and examples of the scientific and literary works that inspired Shelley.

Doheny Memorial Library Treasure Room
On display until August 15

DANCE HERITAGE VIDEO ARCHIVE

Through a partnership between the USC Libraries and the USC Glorya Kaufman School of Dance, the USC Digital Library has debuted a collection of 1,200 video recordings of culturally significant dance performances, rehearsals, media productions, and interviews with pioneering choreographers and dance artists. The project is made possible by generous support from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.

BECOMING LOS ANGELES
Head across Exposition Boulevard and visit Becoming Los Angeles at the Natural History Museum!

Whether you’ve lived in L.A. for your entire life, or are visiting for the first time, Becoming Los Angeles is full of artifacts and stories that will surprise you. Meet the diverse groups of people who made this city their home—drawn to the fertile soil, mountains, beaches, and endless sunshine—and then, over many generations, helped it become Los Angeles.
