Monthly Display Case
Check out our October Display Case on the 2nd floor landing of MHP to learn about the many women of gothic and horror literature!

Call for Participation!
Focus groups on the perception of reference services at USC Libraries.
Each participant will receive a $25 Amazon gift card and the focus group sessions will be conducted in late October and early November, more details to follow soon.
We would like to speak with current undergraduate and graduate students enrolled in on-campus and online programs.
Interested students can fill out this form: bit.ly/RefServices

Featured Workshops:
Library Crash Course 2.0: Midterm Edition
Meet in the Doheny Memorial Library lobby. Open to everyone!

• October 2, 10:00-11:00 AM
• October 3, 6:00-7:00 PM
• October 7, 3:00-4:00 PM

Do you have a research paper coming up? Don't know how to print, borrow a laptop, or find a book in the library? Have no clue what librarians can help you with?
Come learn - as a refresher or for the first time - how the Libraries can support you in your midterm work.

Maya Women and the Textile Industry
August 31-December 31
Doheny Ground Floor Rotunda USC alumna Marie Plakos '70 is a photographer, sociologist, and educator with a longtime interest in documenting the work and lives of the women artists in the Mexican state of Chiapas. On view here is a work. Additional items from the libraries’ collections trace some of the artistic heritage of the Maya people.
